Where is San Remo?
San Remo lies at the Eastern entrance of Westernport Bay, and is a point situated in its most beautiful and fertile... It was formerly known as... It is now a fashionable resort... It is a point of view... It is a point of view... It is a point of view...

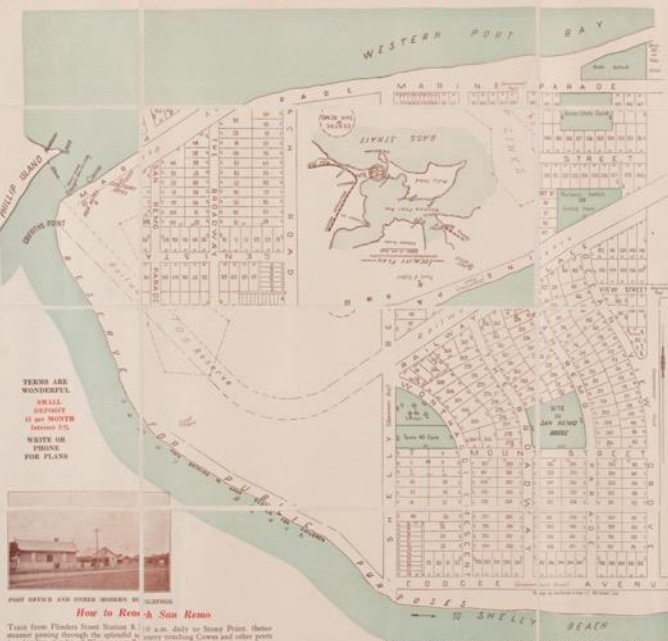

A Retreat from the Summer Heat
San Remo is remarkable for the calmness of its climate during the summer months, when the thermometer ranges from 65 to 75 degrees below the Melbourne average... It has been called the 'San Remo of the South'... It is a point of view... It is a point of view... It is a point of view...

A Fashionable Health Resort and Paradise of Sport
It is a lovely & fashionable watering place, with beautiful grounds and beaches... It is a point of view... It is a point of view... It is a point of view...

San Remo Heights Estate, San Remo

You Pay Cash for the Block, We find Whole of Money to Build

The San Remo Heights Estate
The rapidly increasing popularity of this estate and the importance of these views have induced the holders of a most desirable site to subdivide the block into convenient-sized allotments suitable for erection of houses, cottages, etc. Bounded on the north by Westernport Bay, and on the south by San Remo, the magnificent Estate then it rises from the water's edge until it attains an elevation of about 400 feet above high water mark. From here a commanding view is obtained of the whole coastline from Cape Schanck to Wilson's Promontory; on either side the islands and Cape Wollamai, the town of the western bay. First-class accommodations and perfect views for families may be obtained at San Remo Heights and Private Building Houses.

The Future of San Remo
Westernport Bay is surrounded by Admiralty Islands for a Naval Base, thus San Remo, backed up as it is by the magnificent scenery of the bay, from the Phillip Islands, and with a channel showing 60 ft. to 65 ft. of water, will inevitably be the trading port of Victoria.
